This is great. Kill innovation. Pretend it has something to do with "public safety". Pathetic.

I contribute to political campaigns and encourage others to do so. I will make every effort to raise funds for the opponents of everyone on this commission, no matter what party, no matter what election.

When you are back in your private practice offices defending drug dealers and drunks, remember what you did today. The power of the market will have sunk your lame careers.

You people should be ashamed of yourselves.

Hacks.
